ABOUT ABIGAIL

The story behind the songs

Abigail Isaac is a gospel recording artist, worship leader, creative entrepreneur, and storyteller passionate about using creativity to communicate faith, identity, and purpose. Born and raised in Nigeria and now based in New Jersey, her journey has been shaped by music, performing arts, faith, family, and a deep desire to make an impact through the gifts God has given her.

With a background in Performing Arts, Abigail brings together music, movement, storytelling, production, and leadership in everything she does. Her passion for worship goes beyond performing — she believes music can create an atmosphere where people pause, reflect, encounter God, and find the courage to keep moving forward.
